Notes for contributors

The Ad Hoc Bulletin of Short-Term Dynamic Psychotherapy is dedicated to providing, for both practitioner and researcher, access to up-to-date information on Short-Term Dynamic Psychotherapy.

Each issue will contain original articles and reviews, reports on theory and practice, reviews of recent literature and theoretical discussions.

Initial Manuscript Submission. In case of submission by mail three copies of the manuscript are to be submitted to the editorial bureau of Ad Hoc, P.O. Box 15688, 1001 ND Amsterdam, The Netherlands; in case of submission by e-mail the document can be sent to secretariaat@vkdp.com.

When the manuscript is accepted for publication, the author will have to transfer his copyright by filling out a signed statement. In this statement the author declares that his manuscript contains original unpublished work and is not being submitted for publication elsewhere at the same time.

Manuscript style

The language of the Bulletin is English. All submissions, including book reviews must have a title page, be printed on one side of the paper, be double-line spaced and have a margin of 3 cm all around. Illustrations and tables must be printed on separate sheets, and not be incorporated in the text.

The title page must list the full title, and names and affiliations of all authors. Give the full address, including email, telephone and fax, of the author who is to check the proofs.

Supply an abstract of up to 150 words for all articles (except book reviews).

Reference style

References should be quoted in the text as name and year within brackets and listed at the end of the paper alphabetically. Where reference is made to more than one work by the same author published in the same year, identify each citation in the text as follows : (Cornelissen 2001 a), (Cornelissen, 2001 b). Where two or more authors are listed in the reference list, please cite all authors' names in the first instance in the text, followed by (Cornelissen et al., 2001) for subsequent citations.

All references must be complete and accurate. Online citations should include date of access. References should be listed in the following style:
